Quality policy Doro group

Doro delivers premium products and services. Always with the end user's needs of simplicity and quality at heart.

We continuously improve our products and ways of working, to provide high and consistent quality.

To achieve this, we

- check that our customers' explicit and implicit needs are fully met
- regard both our products and services as expressions of our quality
- inform and train our employees and suppliers, to understand the importance of quality
- actively seek feedback on products and ways of working
